

CHIA Manager Benefit Details

As a manager at the Center for Health Information and Analysis (CHIA), you have a comprehensive program of benefits available to you and—in many instances—your family. Please contact the Human Resources Department for more information about your benefits.

Health Care Benefits

As a manager at CHIA, you have medical, dental, and vision plans from which to choose coverage. You may cover yourself and your eligible spouse and children. To elect coverage, you must enroll within 21 days of hire. Health insurance is effective immediately if your start date is on the first of the month. If your start date is between the second through the end of the month, health insurance is effective on the first of the following month.

GIC Health Insurance

The Commonwealth offers a variety of insurance plans to all state employees through the Group Insurance Commission (GIC). Employees hired before June 30, 2003, contribute 20% of the premium costs for basic life and health insurance and the Commonwealth contributes 80%; employees hired on or after June 30, 2003, contribute 25% and the Commonwealth contributes 75% of the premium costs. For specific detailed information about the various health insurance plans and current rates, please visit the GIC website.

GIC Dental and Vision Insurance

The Commonwealth offers management employees dental and vision insurance through the GIC. For specific detail information about the plans and current rates, please visit the GIC website.

GIC Wellness Reimbursement Program

Employees enrolled in the GIC health insurance plans are eligible for several wellness reimbursements and programs. Please see program details listed by insurance products.

Employee Assistance Program

Mass4You, the Commonwealth's Employee Assistance Program, is available at no additional cost to all active state and municipal employees and their immediate family members who are eligible for GIC coverage. Sign in to Optum Live and Work Well with access code Mass4You to learn more.

Flexible Benefits Plans

Flexible benefits plans help you save money by allowing you to pay for certain eligible expenses with pre-tax dollars. The tax savings help offset the impact of these expenses on your disposable income.

Dependent Care Assistance Program (DCAP)

This benefit program is administered by Total Administrative Services Corporation, which allows you to set aside up to $5,000 of your income to pay for child or dependent care expenses on a pre-tax basis. If you enroll on a timely basis, coverage generally begins on the first of the month 60 days after your date of hire. You also may enroll during the annual open enrollment period.

Health Care Spending Account (HCSA)

This is an optional program administered by Total Administrative Services Corporation, which allows you to set aside up to $3,300 of your income to pay for eligible medical expenses on a pre-tax basis. There is a monthly pre-tax fee of $1.00 for the HCSA alone, DCAP alone, or both the HCSA/DCAP.

MBTA Pass/Commuter Expenses

MBTA Pass/Commuter Rail/Parking Expense program is available each month, the cost of which may be automatically deducted from your paycheck on a pre-tax basis. The pre-tax monthly fee for this program is $1.50 for transit alone, parking alone, or both transit and parking. You may enroll at anytime during the year.

Transit Reimbursement Benefit

The TransitMatch program is designed to provide eligible Commonwealth employees with convenient access to transit savings. It allows employees to save on commuting expenses and contribute to a greener, more sustainable environment. Through TransitMatch, the Commonwealth reimburses 50% of employees' contribution for commuting-related expenses, up to $150 per month and $1,800 annually.

Income Protection Benefits

The following benefits provide you with a source of income should you become disabled, injured, and unable to perform your normal duties at work.

GIC Long-Term Disability (LTD)

This is an optional income replacement program in the event that you become unable to work for an extended period of time due to an accident or illness. Rates are based on salary and age. Employees pay 100% of premium. Employees enrolling within 31 days of hire may enroll without providing evidence of good health. All current state employees who enroll at any time throughout the year or open enrollment period must provide proof of good health for approval to enter the plan.

Workers' Compensation

Workers' compensation is an insurance that provides income, medical benefits, and rehabilitative services or workers injured on the job or while performing work-related duties.

Extended Illness Leave Bank (EILB)

EILB is a voluntary program that allows employees who experience an extended illness or injury to recover salary that would otherwise be lost due to an extended unpaid leave of absence. Employees must have 12 months of service prior to joining and may join during one of two enrollment periods in the year. Employees must donate one day of leave time to become a member. For more information and enroll, please visit the Extended Illness Leave Bank program.

Paid Family Medical Leave (PFML)

PFML is a state-offered benefit for anyone who works in Massachusetts and is eligible to take up to 26 weeks of paid leave for medical or family reasons. PFML is funded through a Massachusetts tax and is separate from both the federally mandated benefits offered by the Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) and from leave benefits that may be offered by CHIA. For Information and details, see the Paid Family and Medical Leave \(PFML\) program.

Survivor Protection Benefits

If you should die while employed at CHIA, your surviving beneficiary(ies) will receive benefits from a GIC-sponsored plan.

GIC Basic Life Insurance

All GIC health insurance plans include a $5,000 life insurance policy. Employees who choose not to enroll in GIC's health insurance may still purchase this basic life insurance. Employees hired before 2003 pay $1.30/month for this coverage; employees hired after 2003 pay $1.63/month. Rates are subject to change.

GIC Optional Life Insurance

Employees may purchase additional life insurance up to 8 times their salary less $1,000 or elect a flat amount up to $1,000 less than their salary. Rates are based on the amount selected, age, and smoking status.

Retirement Plans

CHIA provides you with a number of retirement benefits, including retirement income, medical and dental coverage, and several voluntary retirement savings plans.

Commonwealth Retirement

Membership in the Massachusetts State Employees' Retirement System (MSERS) is mandatory for all employees who are employed on a part-time or full-time permanent basis.

- The date of hire determines the percentage rate of bi-weekly pre-tax retirement contributions; for example, CHIA employees hired on or after July 1, 1996, contribute 9%.
- An additional 2% on the difference of salaries above $30,000 is contributed for employees hired on or after January 1, 1979.
- Full-time employees earn one year of creditable service for each year of service completed. Creditable service is prorated if you are employed on a less-than-full-time basis. For estimated retirement percentages, please see links below:
 - If hired before April 2, 2012
 - If hired on or after April 2, 2012

Retiree Health and Dental Benefits

Upon retirement, employees are eligible to continue their health insurance at the group rate and add dental insurance at the group rate. See the Retirement and GIC Benefits page for further benefit and eligibility information.

Deferred Compensation—Pre-Tax 457 Plan

The Massachusetts Employees Deferred Compensation Program (SMART Plan) is a 457 deferred compensation plan that allows you to make contributions into an account established on your behalf. Your contributions are made on a pre-tax basis and all earnings are tax-deferred. The amounts accumulated on your behalf are distributed at retirement, or after a qualifying event such as separation from service or death. The current IRS maximum contribution per calendar year is $23,500 to $47,000 depending on your age. The enrollment form can be found at the MA SMART Plan registration page.

Roth 457 Plan—Post-Tax 457 Plan

A post-tax optional deduction for additional retirement funds—funds may only be removed/transferred upon termination or at time of retirement. The current IRS maximum contribution per calendar year is $23,500 to $47,000 depending on your age. See the Retirement and GIC Benefits.

Professional Development

As a CHIA employee, you are encouraged to obtain the skills, qualifications, and experience that allow you to make progress in your career.

Tuition Remission

Full-time employees must complete six months of service to be eligible for tuition remission. Employees and/or their spouses may enroll in courses at any public community college, state college, or university in Massachusetts (excluding the University of Massachusetts Medical Program and UMASS Law School [Dartmouth]). The tuition remission benefit is subject to space availability and applies to the cost of tuition only. Note that student activity/administrative fees or books are not included in this benefit. For more information, please visit Commonwealth Tuition Remission Program. Once you have selected a school, please use the Tuition Remission eForm to enroll.

Educational Leave

CHIA employees may be granted a paid leave of absence in accordance with the policies of CHIA for educational purposes to attend conferences, seminars, briefing sessions, or other functions of a similar nature that are intended to improve or upgrade the individual's skills or professional abilities.

Professional Development

As part of CHIA's commitment to our strategic plan, we seek to provide our staff with improved access to professional development opportunities. This reserve may cover expenditures such as classes and seminars, professional memberships, registration fees, educational materials, and tools related to your job. Please contact your manager for further details.

Leave Benefits

CHIA provides employees with a variety of paid and unpaid time-off benefits.
